REAL PEACE OF MIND

Your personal warranty is backed by BlueScope and our proven commitment to quality service, including on the ground support across Australia. That's peace of mind you can really count on.

You must register and apply for a warranty to ensure that you have a valid warranty and that your warranty is on record.

ELIGIBILITY

Availability and duration of warranties depend on a number of factors, including location and how products are installed.

The online warranty system considers the specifics of your product and will determine if you are eligible for a warranty, and for how long.

WHAT DOES YOUR WARRANTY COVER?

Warranties are available for BlueScope materials used in fencing, guttering, sheds, garages, purlins, water tanks, decking, roofing, walling and house frames. Depending on eligibility and product application, BlueScope warranties can include cover for corrosion to perforation by natural weathering, as well as paint flake and peel. Your official BlueScope Warranty Certificate will inform you of the extent and duration of your warranty cover.

THINKING OF USING STEEL IN YOUR NEXT PROJECT?

Before you get started, use the 'Check Available Warranties' tool to work with your installer or builder to check suitability of materials for given locations or design. For example, beachside locations close to breaking surf, or the pitch angle of a roof may affect warranty eligibility.
